VIEW SOURCE

This fan-fiction article, Halsey "The Basan", was written by Witcher190. Please do not edit this fiction without the writer's permission.

Halsey "The Basan" better known as Halsey Pitch was a second generation witcheress of the School of the Crane and the adoptive daughter of Putnam Pitch.

Putnam was very fond of her. Stefan "The Crane" even had a theory that she was his favorite kid and he was somewhat jealous of her.

Halsey's life is largely unknown, although it is known that she was the founder of the first version of the School of the Thunderbird, like many other adopted children of the Grandmaster of the Cranes who founded other schools. It is also known that she was present when her father died wounded by the dragon her father faced.

Some theologians and followers of Saint Putnam speculate that perhaps she was the one who handled everything about her father's body. For, shortly after the witcher's burial, the ship she was on disappeared into the Mad Sea. Thus allowing members of the more radical tribalist factions that escaped the School of the Owl reform to seize power and create a school in their own image. The fate of the witcheress is unknown, although many consider her dead.
